

Commissioner Acknowledgement NEW BOARD MEMBER MANUAL

I hereby acknowledge receipt of my Carol Stream Park District New Board Member Manual. I understand that the manual has been developed for the general guidance of Carol Stream Park District commissioners and that it is my responsibility to read and acquire an understanding of the information contained in the Manual. I have been advised that the Executive Director is available to answer any questions I may have concerning the Manual. Furthermore, I understand that neither the Manual nor any of its individual terms constitutes or represents binding contractual commitments on the part of the Carol Stream Park District, and that the policies, benefits and rules described in the Manual can be unilaterally changed or discontinued by the Carol Stream Park District at any time without prior notice.

As new policies are enacted or current policies revised, I understand that I may be given additional or revised pages to include in the Manual. I agree to update my Manual as new pages are issued to ensure that my copy will remain an accurate resource on the Carol Stream Park District policies. I understand that even if my personal copy is not updated for any reason, the actual copy of the Carol Stream Park District New Board Member Manual shall be the most recently passed by the Board.

I acknowledge that the New Board Member Manual is considered property of the Carol Stream Park District and I will return it upon my separation from the Carol Stream Park District. I certify that I have been issued a New Board Member Manual and that I agree to read, understand and follow the policies contained therein.
